

Gleason Library Trustees Meeting
April 13, 2017
8 a.m., Hollis Room, GPL

Present: Steve Golson, Andrew Beal, Priscilla Stevens, Christine Schonhart, and representatives from Tappé, NADAAA, and Abacus architectural firms

- I. NADAAA, Tappé, and Abacus architectural firms each did a presentation for the Trustees outlining their qualifications for and initial ideas about reconfiguring, repurposing, and renovating the interior spaces of Gleason Library.
- II. After the presentations and after discussion of them, the Trustees decided to offer the project to Tappé. Christine Schonhart will notify all the firms of this decision.
- III. The Trustees set the next Endowment and regular Trustees meeting for Tuesday, April 18, at 7 p.m.
- IV. The Trustees regretfully accepted the resignation of Christine Schonhart, who is leaving GPL for a new job at the Brooklyn Public Library.
- V. The Trustees will hold a going-away gathering for Christine Schonhart on Wednesday, April 26, from 4-5:30 p.m.
- VI. The Trustees decided to invite the following people to serve on a search committee for a new director:
  - Steve Golson, Andrew Beal, and Priscilla Stevens, GPL Trustees
  - Penny Zezima and Susan Mills, co-presidents of the Friends of Gleason Public Library
  - Deena Scaperotta and Tahleen Shamlian, and, provisionally, Martha Feeney-Patten
  - Priscilla Dumka, Town Accountant.

Documents available at the library:
Presentation portfolios from NADAAA, Tappé, and Abacus Architects
Resignation letter from Christine Schonhart

Meeting adjourned at 10:05 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Priscilla S. Stevens
Secretary
