Massachusetts General Law (Ch.78 Sec. 7) states that circulation records of library materials are private. Please complete this form if you wish to grant permission to another person to access your account and pick up your holds. A note will be placed on your account to allow proxy access for all future transactions. Please let us know if you wish to revoke permission in the future.

This form may be submitted by mail, dropped off in person to the library’s checkout desk, or left in the outside book drop.
